A reliable and up-to-date summary of Anglo-Saxon and Norman England designed for students and teachers preparing for the new GCSE 'Anglo-Saxon and Norman England' British Depth Study components of the Edexcel and AQA examination boards.

'This is a very useful book indeed. It is lively ... and well presented, and it will be ... of wide interest not only to those preparing specifically for GCSE courses on this period but also to any reader who wishes to find out more about a rich and colourful era that was seminal in Britain's historical development.'

—David L. Smith, Fellow, College Lecturer and Director of Studies in History, Selwyn College, University of Cambridge, UK

'An outstanding teaching resource with an innovative, source-based approach that drives the narrative and fosters debate. With comprehensive exam guidance and accessible layout, it offers stretch and support in equal measure.'

—Steve Lomon, Teacher of History, Latymer Upper School, London, UK
