A collection of the principal publications of the distinguished scholar-critic Stephen Wall.

'This welcome book collects the work of a master Trolloper and luminous Victorianist in a single volume. With [Wall's] landmark study of Trollope and Character at its centre [...] the collection is indispensable reading for scholars in the field.'

—Lauren M. E. Goodlad, author of The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic: Realism, Sovereignty, and Transnational Experience

'Stephen Wall, "Trollope and Character" (1988) and Other Essays on Victorian Literature' is a collection of critical essays by the eminent literary critic Stephen Wall, including his exceptional writings on Anthony Trollope, as well as brilliant studies of Charles Dickens and other major Victorian figures.
