“Lusophone African Short Stories is an important reading for all of those who are interested in the Portuguese colonial Africa and the emergence and evolution of the national literatures of Portugal’s former African colonies.” —Sandra Sousa, Assistant Professor of Portuguese, University of Central

“Enhanced by a detailed introduction and biographical notes, this solid and inclusive anthology fills a mounting research and pedagogic need. The collected material ranges from the late colonial period to contemporaneity, comprising 25 writers from 5 Portuguese-speaking African countries. Notably, most selections are available here in English for the first time.” —Luís Madureira, Professor, African Cultural Studies, University of Wisconsin

This book offers a translation and critical introduction to Lusophone African postcolonial poetry and short stories
