Series: Anthem Companions to Sociology

The Anthem Companion to Émile Durkheim intends to offer different practical attempts to build on Durkheim's legacy and investigate the issues and controversies that characterise contemporary societies and thus contribute to develop further this path of critical enquiry into 'classical sociology'.

The contributions to this volume provide new insights into Durkheim's classical texts and juxtapose them with the reconstruction of his lectures and lesser known writings to offer a wider understanding of his oeuvre.

Contents

Introduction: Gregor Fitzi, Nicola Marcucci, "Explorations with the New Durkheim"; Intellectual Contexts and Epistemological Issues: Susan Stedman Jones, "Back to the Future: Durkheim and the Aporia of Sociological Theory", Keith Sawyer, "The 'Autonomy of Mental and Social entities'.
